ROSSER & MCCARTHY,

CANDIATES for Governor are heard of in most every section of the Common-wealth. The Bullitt Pioneer mentions the Hon. Willite Carpeter. It tooks as though the Democrate will have a long list from which to make their selection. JANES G. BLAINE, J.R., who was quietly married in New York the other day to Miss Nevins, of Ohio, was one of the "boys" when his father was in Congress, and is said to have frequently painted the streets of the Capital a brillant hue. Jimmie G., Jr., will have to settle down to a quiet life with his beautiful bride now, as the old man has allowed him but $1,800 a year to live on.

The Vanceburg Courier talks to the point thusly: "Fellow-Democrats, let us all meet in November, have a general pic-nic, cut off the head of the Republican goose with our hatchet, bury the hatchet, throw the goose over the Garrett Wall into the Kitchen and melt it into hurgoo, give the burgoo to tith docs, kill the dogs, send Wall to Congress, Kitchen to the Beard of Equalization, the Republican proty to the Morg-ue to the devil."

The result is astisfactory to the Democracy of the district the description of the convention of th district, the defeated candidates publicly district, the defeated candidates publicly pledging a warn support to the nominee. Judge Wall, the nomlnee, is a life-long Democrat, and a gentleman of unquestioned shillity and integrity. There is no doubt of his election if the Democrats of the district do their duty."

A great many of our Republican friends hold up their hands in holy horror at the use of money in elections—by Democrata. They say it is demoralizing in the extreme—for Democrata. They say it will ruin the country if persisted in—by Democrata. All of which sounds very nice, but as soon as the champion "boodler" of Northeasten Kentucky, Geo. M. Thomas, is put up for an office you will find those sticklers for political purity howling themselves hoarse for him, when they know that he never made a race in which his hopes of auccess were based on anything else than money. He has used more money to corrupt the voters of this section of the State than any ten Democrats in this Judical district. A suit was tried in the Quarterly Court A sur was tried in the Quarterly Court this week that is destined to become famous. The action was brought several months ago to recover the value of eleven turkeys—311. The parties in the sult are both well-to-do farmers, and being determined fellows, are not likely to come to any compromise. The sult was tried wise la the lower courts and we hellares twice in the lower courts and we believe twice in the lower cours and we believe resulted in a hung jury each time. The trial this week in the Quarterly Court resulted likewise. The costs of each party amount, probably, to double or trehie the value in controversy, and the end is not yet.
